My dear Mr. Meadowcroft:

Yes, in answer to your friendship letter of the 12th, in all the vast confusion attending the coming, next day, of the Congressional Medal presentation to Edison, October 20th, you did have the thoughtful and kindly interest in Charles Lorenzo, Junior, to present him with a copy of your "The Boy's Life of Edison". But, Wm. H., the jacket of the book was on wrong side to, and thus your presentation-dedication was written at the end instead of at the front — but do not worry, for that sheet has been undiscoverably transferred to the proper place. In telling you this, as a good joke on you, I am violating a solemn injunction by Mrs. Clarke — but it is too rich to keep to myself; I must share it with you, for you are a good humorist, too. We should worry.

Mrs. Clarke and I fully reciprocate your psychic wish, that we all soon meet again.

Very sincerely yours,

Chas. L. Clarke.
